

To Gentlemen

Who are desirous of placing their Fall orders, we would state that our store is now finished, and our entire stock of

Suitings and Overcoatings

On exhibition. Our new stock of Fine Woolens

—FOR—

CUSTOM WORK

Is quite twice as large as we have heretofore carried, and will be found to contain

NOVELTIES

For fine work never before shown in this city and fully equal to our growing trade. We would suggest that an

Early Call

Is advisable, as favorite styles are being closed daily.

We shall strive to improve in the

Elegance of our Garments

so as to compare favorably with the improvements in our place of business.

Turk & Bro.,

The Leading Clothiers,

156 and 158 College Street,

BURLINGTON, VT.

40-w13

Established 1837.

Cheapest Book Store IN NEW ENGLAND.

The Old Corner Book Store,

Corner Church and College Sts.,

Is the Place to Buy Everything in the line of Books.

We would respectfully announce to the people of Middlebury and the surrounding country that we are prepared to furnish books either new or old, standard or Miscellaneous, School or College, at prices not quoted by other dealers. Send in your orders or write for prices post-paid. We shall publish in this paper later on a price list of standard works in sets. LOOK FOR IT.

S. Huntington & Co.,

BOOKSELLERS and STATIONERS,

BURLINGTON, - - VT.

Fine Stationery, Engraved Wedding and Calling cards a specialty. [40

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE AT AUCTION!

—OF—

REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY!

Will be sold at public auction, on the premises,

Saturday, Nov. 6, 1886,

COMMENCING AT 10 O'CLOCK, A. M.

All of the lands in Shoreham, Addison county, now belonging to the estate of the late A. B. Treadway, said lands containing about 375 acres, and consisting of a variety of lands (meadow, woodland and pasture) and include the home place of said Treadway, upon which there is an expensive modern dwelling house, with sufficient outbuildings in fair condition. These lands will be sold in an entire parcel or in several parcels, to suit customers, and as shall seem most beneficial to the estate. Terms easy, but made known on day of sale. I will also at the same time sell a quantity of hay and grain and fifty head of registered sheep.

This farm and the dwelling house and barns are well supplied with good and durable spring water. And included in the lands offered is about 100 acres of woodland, upon which there is a large quantity of wood, two sugar orchards, and a large amount of sawing timber, hemlock, butternut and basswood.

JOSEPH T. STICKNEY,

Adm'r of A. B. Treadway's

Shoreham, Vt., Oct. 1, 1886. 40-14

County News.

BRIDPORT.

Butter sold at 25 cents a pound on Tuesday.

Rev. Mr. Olmstead has returned from his vacation.

It is understood that Mr. Philo Jewett has purchased the Hayward farm.

Moses Powers is buying poultry Fridays and Saturdays at Fletcher's store.

Joseph Clair caught an eagle last week marking seven feet seven inches from tip to tip.

Rev. Chas. Bradford of Denmark, N. Y., is visiting his brother-in-law, J. H. Witherell.

Rev. Mr. Cox of West Addison will occupy the pulpit at the M. E. church next Sunday.

BRISTOL.

E. S. and S. D. Farr are absent in market.

Col. N. F. Dunshee went to market Monday morning.

The slaters have begun work on the Baptist church.

The fever patients are all doing well at this writing.

Representative E. B. Patterson left for the capitol Tuesday.

Whitmore & Clark's minstrels appear at Holley hall Oct. 27.

There has been eight interments in the village cemetery since Sept. 1.

Frank Greenough lost his only child Tuesday. It died of dysentery.

J. B. Dike is lying at the point of death at his residence on East street.

The new hotel is to open with a dance on or about the 15th of this month.

There is a case of cancer-rash on Church street, a child of C. S. Bristol.

Messrs. Munsill and Abernethy are pushing their water works to completion.

The Catholic fair opens this week Thursday night to continue four nights.

Rev. C. S. Sargent of New Haven will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

Rev. P. B. Strong goes to Lansingburgh, N. Y., this week to be absent over next Sunday.

There was a union service at the Baptist church last Sunday evening. Rev. Mr. Gregory preached.

Regular monthly communication of Libanus lodge, F. A. M., Monday evening, Oct. 11; work on third degree.

A. E. Grow is sick with malarial fever; a daughter of Dennis Meader and Mrs. Libbie Howden are also sick with the same disease.

Dan Strong has begun work again on the foundations of his house on Mountain street. It is about two years since he broke ground there.

Mine host Ridley of the Bristol House seems to be doing his usual amount of business we should judge by an occasional call at that well-known hostelry.

CORNWALL.

Judge Lane returned last week from a visit to his son in Chicago.

Mrs. Julia F. Langdon of Enfield, N. H., was in town last week.

Franklin Hooker and daughters were absent several days last week on a visit to friends in Poultney.

Mrs. M. C. Stebbins returned last Saturday from Springfield, Mass., where she has been spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Taylor.

Mrs. Lois Wright, widow of the late Rev. Jehiel Wright, died at the residence of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Edwin Ellsworth, on Monday last. The funeral was attended from that place on Wednesday afternoon. She leaves two daughters and a son.

Pursuant to the invitation given in last week's REGISTER, the Y. W. C. T. U. and many others gathered at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Hamblin last Monday evening, it being the occasion of their tenth wedding anniversary.

Their many friends thought it would be pleasing to surprise the worthy couple and manifest their respect and esteem by gifts, among which were two fine easy chairs, which were presented in a very happy manner by Mr. Frank Randall, to whose remarks Mr. Hamblin gratefully responded, after which the programme for the evening was presented, consisting of selections and essays. Fine refreshments were served and at a late hour the company dispersed leaving their best wishes for many happy returns of the day.

WEST CORNWALL.

Nelson Remily has two children sick with typhoid fever.

The Ladies' Sewing circle will meet with Mrs. H. E. Sanford on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 13.

Sherman Harrington is again located at the same barns occupied by him in the summer, where he has five horses which he is driving.

Mrs. Delora Moody, with her children, left on Monday for Batavia, N. Y., where she will visit relatives, and perhaps will go from there to Kansas.

Jack Frost has made his annual visit, but has not proved a very disagreeable visitor as yet. As is his habit, he will be likely to come oftener and stay longer, very soon.

Joseph White has moved into the house recently purchased by him. Francis Shorkey has moved into his new home, and Warren Norton has moved into the parsonage.

EAST MIDDLEBURY.

H. Persons is visiting his children in Dakota.

John Groves, it is reported, has nearly closed a bargain for the sale of his farm.

The apple crop in this vicinity is quite limited in quantity and inferior in quality.

George Sheldon of South street has put 1300 heads of cabbage into his cellar for market.

It was Mr. Clow of Concord, N. H., who did the work on Mr. Belknap's grist-mill.

Milton H. Bidwell of North Bangor, N. Y., has been a guest of his brother, Rev. S. W. Bidwell.

Mrs. Lewis Lamorder died very suddenly on Monday last. She had been out of health for some time.

The potato crop is quite uneven; some are good, while others have been damaged by rust and drouth.

Rev. C. R. Church and wife of Clintonville, N. Y., have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kirby.

J. H. Nash met with a singular accident while out hunting. A squirrel had been driven into a tree, and a large fish-hook had been fastened to a pole for the purpose of getting the animal out of his hiding-place; and as Mr. Nash threw the pole to a man in the tree it came down and the hook went through Mr. Nash's middle finger. Dr. Ross put him under the influence of ether and cut the hook out.

MONKTON.

Mr. Ed. Palmer is clerking for F. H. Dean while he is at Montpelier.

Smith D. Collins, Jr., and wife of Haverhill, Mass., are home on a visit.

Mrs. Oliver Eaton has gone to Russell, Kansas, to live. She started Tuesday.

Repairs have been made at the M. E. parsonage, which improve the looks of it very much.

Quarterly meeting services will be held at the M. E. church, East Monkton, a week from Sunday. The presiding elder is expected to be present in the evening.

NEW HAVEN.

Fordyce H. Bottum has returned to Harvard college.

The excitement over the road question has somewhat abated.

B. J. Smith is in town buying butter for a firm in Troy, N. Y.

Hon. D. W. Nash makes the ninth State Senator elected from this town.

New Haven street has an organized brass band and its residents are entitled to the sympathy of the county at large.

Dea. E. A. Doud is painting and brushing up his buildings and is so much improved in health that he swings the brush himself.

The New Haven Central creamery has closed for the season and some of its patrons now patronize the Beaver Glen cheese factory, which is doing a thriving business.

Senator Nash and Representative Landon will stop at the Montpelier House the present session. This is one of the best hotels in the State and is owned by Irish & Sparrow.

[From Another Correspondent.]

Mrs. H. W. Carter is quite out of health.

Mrs. Meacham was sufficiently recovered to attend the ladies' meeting on Wednesday.

Mrs. Gifford and sister, Miss Eaton, will soon leave to reside for the winter with Mrs. Gifford's children, Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Tobey, at Ashburnham, Mass.

After an absence of more than a year Mrs. and Miss Kent, widow and daughter of the late Cephus H. Kent, will soon be domiciled again in their cottage at the village.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Matile Barrows spoke very interestingly to about fifty ladies at their church parlors upon certain phases of her work as missionary in Japan.

Mrs. Deacon Potter and Mrs. Sherrod Brown have been appointed delegates from the New Haven auxiliary to the annual meeting of the W. B. M. to be held at Middlebury October 27.

Intelligence was received last week of the death, at Washington, of Mr. Rodney Smith, for many years a resident of that city, but formerly of this town. He was brother of Mr. Warren Smith.

On the evening of Wednesday an anti-quarian supper was served by the Young Ladies' club, at the ladies' rooms and vestry. Beans (baked), pumpkin pies, "Injun bread," etc., were among the reminders of the "good old days of yore."

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ashley of Norwood, N. Y., are in town for a few days. They are old residents of New Haven, and since their removal to their present home Mr. Ashley has, with his sons, built up a large and successful mercantile business.

ORWELL.

[Deferred from Last Week.]

Dr. and Mrs. Mather are in Boston for a few days; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Young are also visiting friends in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Chas. Barrett of Grafton is in town visiting her many friends. She is a guest of her father, Hon. R. W. Sanford.

Rev. C. S. Sargent of New Haven occupied the Congregational pulpit very acceptably on Sunday last in exchange with Rev. Mr. Calhoun.

The well which was reported as being drilled for F. B. Kimball and Geo. Babbitt is proving a success. After reaching a depth of 100 feet they find a bountiful supply of water.

Mr. A. A. Branch of Denver, Col., an Orwell boy and a brother of our esteemed townsman, Deacon H. D. Branch, has recently received the appointment of post-office inspector for several of the Western States. We congratulate our friend but are sorry he has departed from the political faith of the fathers.

[Latest.]

W. O. Ray paid 21 cents for the best butter on Saturday last.

A large number of our people attended the fair at Fair Haven last week, and report a good show.

Mrs. M. A. Royce is giving Lawn cottage a new coat of paint. T. D. Lewis is doing the work, which insures a good job.

The Ladies Foreign Missionary society will meet at the Congregational parsonage on Wednesday afternoon of the present week.

Town Auditors R. E. Brown, J. T. Branch and W. O. Ray met on Saturday at the Eagle Hotel and completed their duties in auditing the accounts of the late town treasurer, Hon. J. W. Boynton, deceased.

Mr. Dusharne, the efficient shoemaker on Depot street, is giving his house another story, with other repairs, which will greatly improve the looks of his place. James Kimberly and H. M. Moffit are doing the work.

The oldest son of Mr. Tallmadge Lewis, a boy 13 years of age, performed what many older ones would shrink from doing. One evening last week, while his parents were at the fair in Fair Haven, he milked 25 cows and took care of the animals, besides other chores. Where is the boy of this age that can do the equal?

Rev. Mr. Calhoun occupied his own desk at the Congregational church on Sunday last, giving his congregation an excellent missionary sermon in connection with the taking up of a collection for the American Missionary society; and Rev. A. A. Robertson of Vergennes will preach in the Congregational church on Sunday next in exchange with Mr. Calhoun.

A number of our fruit-growers met on Saturday evening and organized a society to be called the Orwell Fruit-Growers' association. The following officers were elected: President, E. D. Griswold, secretary, W. C. Hack; and Messrs. Jas. Ketcham of Sudbury and H. D. Branch were appointed to confer with fruit-growers in regard to disposing of their fruit in the future and perfect some plan as to concert of action in handling the present abundant crop of apples.

The Evergreens met on Saturday afternoon last at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Wells on Depot street, who were members of this youthful missionary society at its organization—by Mrs. Rev. M. L. Severance—some 10 or 12 years since, and this was a notable meeting on this account and was attended by a large number of young people and children. They were very handsomely entertained by Mrs. Wells, who knows well how this is done.

SHOREHAM.

Mr. Frank Macauley has returned from Boston.

Miss Annie T. Hubbard, who has been living in Auburndale for the past year, is visiting friends in town.

Misses Mary and Nellie Ford, nieces of Dr. J. T. Nagle of the board of health of New York city, who have been spending the summer at the residence of Mr. T. Condon, have returned to their home.

WEYBRIDGE.

[Deferred from Last Week.]

Mr. Sturdevant is in Texas selling sheep.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton are home from a visit to New Hampshire.

Miss Lucy Harrington has returned from a three months' stay at Bread Loaf Inn, having successfully finished her second season.

Mrs. Martha Place of Boston, a physician of the Mind or Christian Science theory, is treating quite a number of cases here with marked success. She administers no medicine whatever.

The marriage of Miss Susie, eldest daughter of Col. W. B. Hurlbut, took place at the M. E. church on Monday evening last. The happy man is Prof. Geo. E. Martin of Honey Brook, Pa., late professor of physiology in Poughkeepsie, and now residing at Winooski. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Mott of Panton, a former pastor, assisted by Rev. E. Delevan, the present one. The church was rich with evergreens and flowers. A large wedding bell hung suspended from the center arch. In the background was a monogram containing the letters M. and H. in evergreens; also a smaller arch of evergreens, and beneath it a bed of pansies. The ushers were Mr. Merle Sneden and Mr. Arthur Cole. These, with the addition of Mr. Will Sheldon and Mr. Bernice Twitchell, made up the groomsmen. The bridesmaids were Misses Nellie and Cora Stow, Carrie Baker and Edna Walker, who were dressed in white. The bride wore white altarpiece with white flowers. Miss Lillie Twitchell presided at the organ, playing a wedding march from Liszt. At the reception held at Col. Hurlbut's residence, immediately after, a large number of rich and rare presents were given. The happy couple went direct to Winooski. Thanks are due Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Wright for a large and splendid contribution of flowers for the occasion.

[Latest.]

Mr. Dan Halo is around again.

Miss Nora Sturdevant, who has bilious fever, is much the same.

Miss Flora Quay is much better and will recover if nothing new occurs.

Rev. Miss Delevan is at Panton assisting the pastor in a series of meetings.

Mrs. Polly Sampson is at Vergennes visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Adams.

Quarterly meeting at the M. E. church in two weeks. Rev. J. J. Noe of Middlebury will be present.

John Brittell went to Montpelier on Tuesday, having received an appointment as page in the House.

Late news from Mr. L. C. Sturdevant tells of his safe arrival and sales of large numbers of sheep at good prices.

Mrs. Loyal Huntington has returned home from a visit to her mother, Mrs. William Sampson of Burke, N. Y.

Mr. John A. Child is at Montpelier attending the annual meeting of the directors of the Vermont Mutual Fire Insurance company, as is Martin E. Sprague.

The ladies of the Y. W. C. T. U. of Weybridge will hold a parlor meeting at the residence of Dea. Samuel James on Wednesday evening, Oct. 13, commencing at 7 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Place's patients are all doing well. Mr. Dexter Mitchell of St. Albans was here Saturday for treatment for heart disease by her, and returned home on Monday much improved. Quite a number from out of town have been helped.

Rev. W. M. Ayres and wife of the New England conference are at his mother's, Mrs. Francis Ayres. He has been unable to fill his appointment for some months on account of poor health. His friends are made glad once more by his presence among them.

WHITING.

G. A. Alden has located in Boston.

Our representative, T. J. Ketchum, has gone to Montpelier this week.

Mrs. C. P. Parker and her two children are at J. E. Parker's for a few days.

Frank Wooster has just got a three-fourths Holstein heifer calf that is a beauty.

O. Smith and daughter Mary have been visiting friends in West Rutland and Clarendon.

Mrs. Martha Burt Thompson has returned to her home in Essex, N. Y., very much improved in health.

Mr. F. D. Douglas has been called to Boston to attend as one of the committee at the Bay State fair this week.

E. B. Pond has just sold his Little Mac colt to Geo. Cummings of Woburn, Mass., for $175; a very good price for an unbroken colt.

Mrs. E. D. Peck is very sick yet at Mrs. C. G. Freeman's in Brandon. Mrs. Ann Simonds of this town is her nurse; no fear but that she will have the best of care.

Ernest Webster left for Cawker City, Kansas, Monday morning, to take charge of the band of sheep formerly owned by his brother Frank, whose sudden death will be remembered by all of his friends.

The game of baseball played at Richville by the Shoreham and Whiting clubs resulted as follows: Shoreham, 13; Whiting, 18. It seems that all was not harmonious in the game, and another challenge has been given and the game is to be played in the near future and is to decide the matter.

About two tons of butter were shipped from our station Tuesday morning, and there are several tons stored near by for the market as soon as the market is ready for the butter.

VERGENNES.

H. Stevens left for Chicago, Ill., Tuesday.

Miss Ella Bradbury's health is improving. She has been very ill.

A new brick walk is being put down on Main street, in front of city hall.

Postmaster Kimball is "doing" Boston. His son George F. is stopping in that city.

Rev. Mr. Calhoun of Orwell will preach in the Congregational church next Sunday.

The amount of business done by our merchants Saturday was not as good as it has been sometimes.

Capt. Case, with the boat Danforth, arrived Friday with merchandise and coal for the Horse Nail company.

Mrs. William E. Greene had a serious attack of bleeding at the nose Monday night. It was checked with difficulty.

The lake steamers and our own are taking winter quarters. The Vermont ends her season's work with this week.

The Young People's society of Christian Endeavor held a meeting in the Congregational vestry Monday evening.

Miss Mary Fisher, who has been absent from Vergennes about a year, stopping in Worcester, Mass., has returned home.

The visit paid vegetation by Jack Frost, Sunday morning, was fatal in its results, as the dead vines in the gardens already prove.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hale are visiting Mrs. Russell. Mrs. Hale's mother, at Keene, N. H. They will be absent about ten days.

Mr. Hale, the photographer, is absent, but S. McLaughlin is left in charge, and he is the tallest kind of a face-maker; call and see.

The funeral of Mr. Charles Tredo, who has long been an invalid, took place Tuesday. He died Sunday of heart disease, in the 65th year of his age.

Col. E. C. Everest has just returned from the great fair at Utica, N. Y., where he enforced the claims to public favor of the Little Giant road machine.

Mrs. H. N. Weed (formerly Mrs. Benjamin Sherman) returns to her Florida home this month. She has been spending the summer with friends in Pittsford.

Mr. William E. Greene was very